

Approved For Release 2000/08/26 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000200650071-7

JUL 15 1961

GRAND ISLAND, NEB.
INDEPENDENT

EVENING 18,930

JUL 15 1961

Honnold-Clutter Vows Exchanged

Word has been received of the marriage of Vorda Honnold, a former resident of Wood River and Grand Island. The groom is L. Raymond Clutter, formerly of Warren, Ohio. The couple was married July 6 in the Western Presbyterian Church, Washington, D.C.

The bride returned to Washington three years ago, after 11 years in the employment of the United States government in various countries in the Far East and Europe. She is presently employed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Mr. Clutter is sales representative of the Combined Insurance Company of America, with office in northern Virginia.

The couple is presently living in Washington, D.C., at the Boston House, 1711 Massachusetts Ave., N. W. After Sept. 1 their permanent address will be Potomac Plaza Apt., 2475 Virginia Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C.